Status of Article 370

2971. SHRI KRISHAN LAL SHARMA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the status of Aricle 370 of the Constitution is temporary/transitional or permanent;

(b) whether it is a fact that the Constitutional amendments and other enactments adopted by the Parliament so far are not applicable to Jammu and Kashmir;

(c) whether section 29-A of the Peoples Representation Act, 1991 is also not applicable to the State; and

(d) if so, whether Government propose to take any action to remove the anomaly and if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): (a) to (d) Keeping in view the special circumstances of Jammu and Kashmir, the Constitutional relationship between the Union of India and the State of Jammu and Kashmir was defined in article 370. Over the years, a number of provisions of the Indian Constitution and a number of other enactments on subjects in the Union and Concurrent Lists have been extended to the State, with or without modifications. Article 370 has thus stood the test of time and has helped in building a progressive and dynamic relationship with the State. There is no anomaly in this situation.

So far as Section 29A of the Representation of the people Act 1951, is concerned, it is applicable to the State of Jammu and Kashmir only for the purpose of elections to Parliament.

Crimes in North-West Delhi

2972. SHRI SHABBIR AHMAD SALARIA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of murders which took place in North West Delhi, particularly in Mangolpuri/Sultanpuri J. J. Colonies during 1991 and upto July, 1992;

(b) the number of murders that took place during the present SHO's tenure;

(c) whether there is an increase in the rate of crimes particularly in murders, in the last two years;

(d) the number of complaints received against those police stations;

(e) whether any complaints were forwarded by M.Ps. to the Ministry of Home Affairs/Police Authorities for investigation of the cases by special crime branch and alleging that main culprits are made to flee by the police after accepting heavy bribes;

(f) whether any investigations were conducted after arresting the named culprits; if so, the outcome thereof and if not, the reasons therefor; and

(g) the action taken/proposed to be taken against the erring police officials?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): (a) 94 cases of murder have been reported in North-West Delhi during the year 1991 and 66 cases in 1992 (upto 26-7-1992). Murders that took place in the Mangolpuri and Sultanpuri J. J. Colonies during 1991 and upto July 1992 are as under:—

Year	Mangolpuri	Sultanpuri
1991 . .	10	10
1992 . .	17	13
(upto 26-7-92)

(b) During the tenures of the present SHOs of Mangolpuri and Sultanpuri 31 cases and 6 cases of murder respectively have been registered.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) The number of complaints received against these police stations are as under:—

Year	Mangolpuri	Sultanpuri
1991 . .	39	29
1992 . .	70	34
(upto 26-7-92)

(e) and (f) Yes, Sir. Culprits named in cases have been arrested and investigations made. All necessary actions like recovery of stolen property, weapons of offence, identity of associates etc. is taken after arrest and cases challaned wherever evidence is sufficient to warrant it.

(g) Two departmental enquiries against previous SHO, P.S. Sultanpuri (i.e. One in year 1991 and other in the year 1992) were ordered for lapses during his tenure and he was transferred to non-sensitive unit.

Use of dual nomenclature of Nepali/Gorkhali

2973. SHRI RATNA BAHADUR RAI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Central Government are often using the dual nomenclature of Nepali/Gorkhali instead of lone Nepali nomenclature; and

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): (a) In certain cases, the Census of India uses dual nomenclature for certain languages like Gorkhali/Nepali. From the 1971 census onwards, the nomenclature of Gorkhali/Nepali is adopted which includes people with Nepali or Gorkhali as mother tongues.

(b) When two mother tongues are returned distinctly in the Census and are gouped together for linguistic reasons, dual nomenclature is used.

Amendment in 55th Constitution Amendment Act

2974. SHRI NYODEK YONGGAM: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to amend the 55th Constitution Amendment Act, 1986 in regard to Statehood of Arunachal Pradesh to incorporate special provisions to ensure the religious, social practices and the administration of civil and criminal justices according to Arunachal Pradesh customary laws and ownership and transfer of land?
